

ENGLISH 3

Syllabus

Welcome! The purpose of this class is to help you become a critical reader and a strong writer. We will accomplish this by integrating reading, writing, listening, speaking, research, and technology into lessons, exercises, and assessments. You can look up all class information (calendar, daily agendas, documents, PowerPoints, and assignments) on my teacher webpage at mrsdargavel.weebly.com.

EXPECTATIONS

CONSEQUENCES

- X Verbal Warning
- X Detention
- X AP Referral
- X Behavior Contract

Cellular and electronic devices are NEVER allowed in class unless the teacher has granted permission. PLAGIARISM and CHEATING are taken very seriously. Any student caught submitting work that is not original will automatically receive a score of zero with no opportunity to redo the assignment. Parents will be notified and a detention assigned for every act of plagiarism or cheating.

Class Grades

If you need extra help or clarification on assignments, PLEASE COME SEE ME! I am available before school from 7:00-7:30AM and after school until 3:15PM. Please make sure you check with me first if you want to stop by!

DAILY MATERIALS

- Required text(s)
- Class binder, complete with dividers and all class notes/handouts
- Paper and pen
- SSR Book

LATE WORK

Homework is an integral part of this course and tends to build into the next lesson. For this reason, late work is NOT accepted unless there is a family issue. Please contact me if this is the case.

ABSENCES

You may only submit work after the due date if it is a legitimate EXCUSED ABSENCE. It is your responsibility to initiate make-up work. This does not apply to assessments, since those due dates are given in advance.
